KEEP WIRES BUSY.

Refusal to Grant Desired Emergency Rates Cause.

Austin, Oct. 9.—Telegraph wires were kept hot Friday between C. K. Dunlap, traffic manager of the Sunbeam lines at Houston, and Railroad Commissioner Colquitt, as the aftermath of the action of the commission in refusing to grant emergency rates. Traffic Manager Oden of the Houston exchange, Dunlap wired through rates from New York to him had not been canceled by the ship lines and that the local commission does not apply to Galveston and Texas City to it was based on the cancellation of through rates that Oden had emergency rates. Colquitt said that these through rates were canceled by the steamship but that through railroad had been canceled. Colquitt did not know why Houston have had to pay local mileage from Galveston and Texas through rates have not been canceled. Colquitt also wired Oden

Austin, Oct. 9.—Attorney General Pollard has practically decided as to whom he will succeed Judge Claude Polk as attorney general, but will not announce the name for a few days. Mr. Pollard goes to the Gulf Coast Line railway, headquarters in Brownsville, as general attorney.

Editor of Cactus Dies.

Austin, Oct. 9.—Paul Haynes, aged twenty-one, one of the students of the university, editor of the University Cactus, died at an early hour Friday morning, the result of an acute case of diabetes, being ill only a few days. He was also press correspondent of the university for some big dailies of the state. He was the son of Alderman Haynes of Austin.

DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN FUND.

It is Little Over Two Hundred and Twenty Thousand Dollars.

New York, Oct. 9.—The Democratic national committee is preparing to announce next week the amount of the campaign fund and individual contributors of amounts of $100 and over. Lists which have been compiled to date and sent here from Chicago show a campaign fund of a little over $220,000. Of this fund something over $180,000 has been collected from contributors, which with $42,000 of the Denver convention fund, is the total fund now in the Democratic treasury. It is learned there have been fourteen individual contributors of $1,000 each and eighteen contributors of $100 each. Among the larger contributors are Guy B. Tucker of Little Rock, $1,000, and Robert L. Owen of Oklahoma, $1,000. The major part of the Democratic campaign funds come from dollar contributors and from the Democratic press, which started the campaign subscriptions.

Kick May Prove Fatal.

Bonham, Oct. 9.—Esther Jamison, aged four years, was kicked by a horse after striking the animal with a switch. A hoof struck her head, causing a fracture. The girl lay unconscious an hour before found. Her chances for recovery are slight.

Fine "Dry Farm" Watermelons.

El Paso, Oct. 9.—J. F. Reeves has just brought in two carloads of fine watermelons raised on his "dry farm," twenty miles from El Paso. These are the first marketable melons ever raised on a dry farm.

Leave Warning Notes.

Dublin, Tex., Oct. 9.—Although it is denied that any previous threats had been made by night riders, notes were found Friday on the big Armstrong gin, signed evidently by night riders, threatening that unless all gins are closed within three days they will be burned. Ginnery say they will not close.

SHONTS A SPEAKER.

Next Meeting of Deep Water Convention at New Orleans.

Chicago, Oct. 9.—The third and last day of the convention of the Lakes to the Gulf Deep Waterways association had no presidential possibility listed as orator, but the attendance was not diminished nor enthusiasm abated in the closing hours. Theodore P. Shonts, president of the Clover Leaf-Alton railroad system and former chairman of the Panama canal commission, was the principal speaker, discussing the "Future of Rail and River Transportation."

the International Congress of Navigation, held at St. Petersburg, told "What Europe Is Doing With Her Waterways."

The final reports of the various committees were made.

With few exceptions the delegates and their families attended the reception and entertainment arranged for them by the Chicago Association of Commerce during the closing sessions of that organization.

Business at the closing transacted at a rapid rate.

Officers were re-elected with the exception of D. R. Forgan of Chicago, as a member of the board of governors. Mr. Forgan retired in favor of B. S. Conway.

New Orleans had no opposition for the next convention and it will be held in that city.

Church of Christ Convention.

New Orleans, Oct. 9.—The introductory meeting of the International Missionary Convention of the Church of Christ began here Friday. About 1,000 delegates were in the city when the meeting began and many more were expected. The first business of the day was the annual meeting of the Christian Woman's Board of Missions, of which Mrs. Anna Atwater of Indianapolis, is acting president. At night addresses of welcome and a praise service were had.

SPEAKING AT STEEP HOLLOW.

Mr. Albritton Addressed a Large Crowd at the Church.

Mr. J. C. Albritton, of Galveston, orator of the day at the county union meeting at Steep Hollow yesterday, arrived here over the H. & T. C at 1:38 p. m. and was met at the depot by a committee delegated to receive him.

Together with Mr. George Adams of the Eagle, he proceeded directly to the place of meeting, unaware that the union had adjourned its session out of respect to the memory of the wife of the president, Mrs. W. L. Edge, notice of whose death appears elsewhere in this issue.

However, the executive committee of the Brazos County Union Warehouse company was in session, and Mr. Albritton, who handles the Union cotton business at Galveston attended this meeting and discussed business affairs with the members. After this committee had concluded its business the people on the grounds assembled in the church where the visitor made a most interesting and valuable talk on industrial conditions as they affect farmers today.

The subject of Mr. Albritton's address was, "What the Farmers' Union Has Been Worth to the Country." For an hour or longer the speaker held the close attention of his audience. His effort dealt with facts pertaining to the price of cotton at different periods before the organization of the Farmers' Union and since that time. He also discussed the benevolent laws adopted by the Texas legislature, mentioning particularly the anti lobbying bill, the anti pass, the anti bucket shop bill and others which the Farmers' Union had endorsed, and claimed some of the credit for securing this legislation as a platform demand.

The cause and effect of the late panic as affecting the price of cotton was also discussed, and made comparison of the price of the staple in various years.

The speaker used the big crop of 1906 and the small crop of 1907 and the prices obtained for the crop during these periods, to illustrate his point. Notwithstanding the panic of the latter year, the price of the staple never sagged below 9 1/2c. This was due largely to the method of marketing adopted by the Union.

The address of Mr. Albritton was well received.

At night he spoke at the courthouse here along the same lines.

Every man in Coulter's store was busy for a while yesterday waiting on students who came to buy trousers mentioned in a little local item appearing in these columns Friday morning concerning a large shipment of this class of apparel which Mr. Coulter had just opened up. These pants are priced at from $2.50 to $3.50 a pair, and are really worth, as pants and prices go today, five dollars. It seemed as though the boys were rushing the line for a while in the afternoon, and a great trade was done in the clothing department. The shipment was an exceptionally large one, however, and Mr. Coulter says that all the sizes are yet complete. The prices range from $2.50 to $3.50 for men's sizes, while boy's knee pants are priced as low as 50c per pair. This line is especially well made, and there's a snap-and-style about it that is not usually found even at much higher prices.

PARKER SCHOOL HOUSE: Mr. Danner and Henry Showers.

Upon the suggestion of Mr. White it was decided to adjourn the meeting out of respect to the memory of the President's wife, Mrs. W. L. Edge, who died Friday morning.

The following committee was appointed by Chairman White to draw up suitable resolutions.

E. J. Fountain, L. M. Cook and Philip Endler.

The committee reported the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, it has pleased the Heavenly Father to call from our midst Sister W. L. Edge, the wife of our beloved president, and whereas his sadness is felt by the entire body of the Farmers' Union, be it

Resolved, that, We extend our deepest sympathies to Brother Edge and his family in their bereavement, and that as we must submit ourselves to the workings of Almighty God, that he also submit to His will and find comfort in knowing that the Father takes care of His own, and bestows upon them the joys of the eternal heavens.

Be it further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be sent to both county papers and also spread on the minutes of the Union, and that a copy be sent to the bereaved family.

MISSIONARY ASSOCIATION

Meets Here on Thursday Oct. 22—A Large Representation Expected.

The Baptist denomination of this city is making considerable preparation for the convening of the Central Texas Missionary Baptist Association, composed of Brazos and Robertson counties, which will meet here on Thursday, October 22, and continue through the Sunday following. It is expected that 200 messengers from a distance will be accredited to the convention, and the Bryan congregation is much enthused in the matter.

A committee of entertainment has been appointed, as follows: Mr. W. S. Howell, Rev. J. M. Bullock, Mrs. J. W. Hunnicut and Mrs. A. J. Buchanan.

The following messengers were appointed from the First Baptist church of this city: Rev. M. E. Weaver, Rev. J. M. Bullock, Dr. and Mrs. O. C. Charlton, Mr. T. E. Taylor, Mr. W. A. Withers, Mr. John A. Moore, Mr. H. O. Boatwright, Mr. W. S. Howell, Mr. C. E. Lytton, Mr. L. M. Collier, Mr. W. R. Sanders, Mr. J. M. Hare, Mr. C. E. Bullock, Mr. A. W. Buchanan, Mr. J. J. Conway, Mrs. T. R. Batte, Mrs. W. J. Walker, Mrs. J. M. Collier, Miss Waldine Sanders, Mrs. J. A. Myers and Mrs. J. M. Bullock.

The time of the convention will be devoted to educational and missionary matters, and among the church officials whose efforts are especially devoted to this feature of the work the following are expected to be present: Dr. J. B. Gambrell of Dallas, secretary of state missions; Mr. Frank Norris, editor of the Baptist Standard, Dallas; Dr. R. C. Buckner of Buckner Orphan's home, Dallas, and Dr. Butler, pastor of the McKinney Avenue Baptist church, Dallas, who will address the gathering in the interest of education.

A full attendance is desired, and everybody will be made comfortable. Arrangements have been made for the care of all who ride or drive to the country, and a car will be taken care of.

On account of the death of Mr. Edge, wife of president W. L. Edge, of the Brazos County Farmers' Union, the meeting of all the local unions of this county which was to have occurred at Steep Hollow Friday and Saturday, has been postponed subject to the call of the president. Mrs. Edge died Friday morning at 7 o'clock at the family home near Harris schoolhouse, eight miles north of this city, and the union meeting was to have been held at Steep Hollow, six miles east. Preparations had been made to entertain a large number of visitors, and there was a crowd of people on the ground when the sad intelligence of the death of the wife of the president was imparted by vice president Foster, who adjourned the meeting subject to call.

Mr. J. C. Albritton of Galveston, representing State President Neill, arrived from Galveston over the H. & T. C. 1:38 p. m., and was driven out to the place of meeting.

FROM SUPT. PARKER

Address to Patrons of Rural Schools of the County.

To the Patrons of the Rural Schools:

In view of the fact that the majority of the country schools are open for only six or seven months of the year, and some even for a shorter time, I would urge that parents have their children enter school at the opening of the term or as soon thereafter as possible, and see that they attend regularly. I fear that many parents do not realize the importance of sending their children to school regularly.

Looking over statistics for the school year ending August 31, 1906, we find the astounding fact that in the rural schools of Texas for that year, there was an average daily absence of 262, 428 children within school age. In other words, of every one hundred children living in the rural districts, forty-seven were out of school during all the time the schools were in session.

Coming back to the question of entering school at the beginning of the term, I wish to say that it is quite an advantage to the child to begin with the rest of his class. He feels that he has an equal start and is not embarrassed and discouraged by missing things that his classmates have just passed over. It is an advantage to the teacher in arranging her classes to have all at beginning of school.
It is an advantage to the school as a whole for the teacher to have her classes so arranged that she will have time to give the needed instruction on the various subjects. I realize, of course, that in the country districts, conditions are sometimes such that some of the children can not enter school at the beginning of the term, but let me urge that they enter as soon as possible.

Another matter to which I call attention is the change in text books.
Nearly all of the books used in the schools during the past five years were changed this year by the Text book Board. The law requires that the adopted books be used. The law also provides that the books that have been in use in the schools may be exchanged for the new books at half price, provided the old books have all the lessons in them. I suggest that the old books might be used the first few days of school until the teacher has classified the children and furnished them with a list of books needed.

In conclusion, let me ask that parents visit their school; get acquainted with the teacher and her work; see whether there is anything needed in the way of comfortable seats, desks, blackboards, window lights, drinking water, stove wood, or anything else that might add to the comfort and convenience of your child. If there are any such needs, you, of course, will be willing and ready to help provide for the good of the party.

the same. No good farmer will allow his colts and calves pastureage and water as he sees they need for their growth and development. Neither will fond parents deny their children the needed comforts and conveniences at school necessary for their mental growth and development.

Respectfully,
T. W. PARKER.
County Superintendent.

A CURFEW FOR THE GROWNS-UPS

A well-known resident of Gainesville this morning suggested a unique plan to abate burglaries which should be popularly discussed, and if found feasible, adopted.

The business man referred to,
stated that he thought it would be a good idea to instruct the officers to stop all persons wandering around after 11:30 at night and to inquire about their business. If satisfactory explanations were made, allow them to proceed, otherwise let them spend the night in the police station. Of course this does not apply to people who are justified in being out in the residence portion of town and will work no inconvenience with them, but it's the tough characters who loiter around waiting for the lights to go out that this ordinance would affect and they happen to be the ones that should be called upon to explain.—Gainesville Register.

To the Members of the First Presbyterian Church.

A congregational meeting will be held at the church at 11 o'clock, sharp, on Sunday morning, to transact important business.

All members of the church are earnestly requested to be present.

A. W. Kennard, Moderator.

Hon. Rufus Hardy, our congressman, has gone to take part in the campaign in the doubtful States of the North and East. Mr. Hardy has an able and honorable opponent, Mr.
C. L. McCoy of this city, who is making a vigorous canvas and will doubtless receive the votes of all the Republicans in the district, but Hardy does not hesitate to respond to the call of duty regardless of his own peculiar interests. The Democrats of the Sixth district will see to it that he loses nothing by his self sacrifice
for the good of the party.

S ENRIQUEZ.

Senor Ignacio Perches Enriquez, who has for some time held a position as linotype operator in The Eagle office, has received a letter from the management of the Monterrey (Mexico) News, offering him the position of Editor of the Spanish edition of that excellent periodical.

Senor Perches Enriquez is a well educated Mexican gentleman of pure Spanish blood, who left his native country some years ago for political reasons. He is a strong supporter of the Diaz regime, which he thinks is so firmly established that there is no danger of a revolution following the death of the venerable president. It is his opinion that General Reyes will be the successor of Diaz and that he will prove himself in every way worthy and able to maintain the position that Mexico has attained among the nations.

Senor Perches Enriquez has the offer from Monterrey under consideration. If he accepts The Eagle will regret to lose his valuable services.

A Cannery for Bryan.

Every year large quantities of fruits and vegetables go to waste because at times the supply is greater than the demand of the local market. Last summer for awhile tomatoes were so abundant that nobody would buy them, and this was also true of figs, and to some extent of other articles.
To stop this waste The Eagle has several times suggested that somebody could make good money by putting in a cannery. But no good business man is going to invest money in a cannery without the assurance of a sufficient supply of canning material to secure him against loss.

In order to put the matter on a business basis there must be a contract, or at least an understanding, between the producers and the can-ner. If the fruit and vegetable growers will get together and see what they can do, and if they find it practicable, will formulate a business proposition that is reasonably attractive, the editor of The Eagle will find the man with the money to build, equip and operate the cannery. The Eagle does not know whether or not it is within the province of the Farmers' Union to undertake this, but if it be so, would like to hear from them.

Attractive Laundry Work

has a charm of its own aside from a pleasing personality. That is why work done by the Bryan Steam Laundry has so many admirers. The simple reason is that we "know how" to do the work properly, and furthermore we do it. We take the trouble to do it right. Lots of people know how to do a thing, but they haven't pride enough to do it properly. We are not that kind.

DEATH OF MRS. L. EDGE

Mrs. W. L. Edge, wife of Mr. L. Edge, president of the Farmers' Union of Brazos county, died at the family home eight miles north of this city, Friday morning at 7 o'clock. The death of this estimable lady came as a sad surprise to the many friends of the family in this section. She had been ill for some time, but her condition did not seem to be serious, or warrant apprehension on the part of her friends.

Members of the family living at a distance have been communicated with, and if all arrive the funeral will occur Sunday morning with interment at Old Tryon church yard.

Surviving deceased besides her husband, are eight children, four sons and four daughters: Mr. W. H. Edge of Beaumont, Mr. J. S. Edge of Abilene, Mr. Monroe Edge and Mr. George Edge of this city. The daughters are, Mrs. Drummond of Abilene, Mrs. Dr. Drummond of Harris School house community, and Misses Della and Ella Edge, who reside with their parents at the family home.

Expressions of sincere regret were heard on all sides here when knowledge of Mrs. Edge's death was generally disseminated Friday, and the profound sympathy of the entire community is with the afflicted family in the great loss which has come to them.

A phone message from the Edge home at Harris schoolhouse to the Eagle last night advises that the funeral will occur Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

FIRE AT A. AND M. COLLEGE.

A wire from College at 11:30 last night advised that the agricultural building was burning.

Mayor Maloney secured an engine and flat car as soon as possible and the department and fire apparatus left at 12:15 over the I. & G. N. in charge of Chief Hamilton.

The fire originated in southeast closet caused by live wires being crossed, damages were estimated about ten or twelve thousand dollars, most of the furniture up stairs was damaged by fire and water. When the Bryan Fire Department arrived at College the fire was under control by the A. and M. boys.

A more extended notice will appear in tomorrow's issue.

Brothers Springs Sensation.

New York, Oct. 9.—Inquiry into the Panama discrimination charges was temporarily interrupted in a sensational manner Friday when William A. Brothers, who brought the charges publicly accused Spencer Miller, representative of the Lidgewood company, of perjury.

Brigadier General Garlington, who is conducting the inquiry, rapped repeatedly for order, but there was so much commotion in the room for a time he could not make himself heard. "There's only one side to this thing being heard any way," shouted Brothers over the din. "There is no us talking. You don't want to hear the truth. I will withdraw."

With that Brothers left the room and as General Garlington was unable to restore order temporary adjournment was taken.

American and Couple of Spaniards Put to Death.

FILIPINOS DO THE DEEDS.

Natives Claim That the Dead Men Were the Aggressors, but Neighbors Insist the Murders Were Without Cause and Greatly Incensed.

Manila, Oct. 9.—Filipinos have committed more dastardly deeds.

Near Lubao, Pampanga province, Charles M. Trotter, an American, and Vicente Toledo and Jose Canayan, Spaniards, were killed by a party of Filipinos. Bolos were the weapons used and the bodies of the unfortunate victims were mutilated in a horrible manner.

Mr. Trotter, who was a contractor and land owner, had trouble with a Filipino over a land transaction. The latter, it is claimed, led the party which took the lives of Trotter and his two companions.

The Filipinos assert that the Americans and the Spaniards were the aggressors, but American neighbors of the dead men say the murders were deliberately plotted by the Filipinos who waylaid the trio and provoked a quarrel.

American and Spanish residents are greatly incensed.

THREE COUPLES WED.

Triple Ceremony Takes Place on Board the Steamship Majestic.

New York, Oct. 9.—Wedding bells rang long and loud aboard the White Star line steamship Majestic. When the mail steamer arrived at her pier from England she brought three brides-to-be, who were to be met by as many promised husbands.

The girls were Miss Alice L. Osborne of Norwich; Miss Mildred F. Hand of Portsmouth, and Miss Rosa Jane Webb of Portsmouth. They had to tell all this to the immigration inspector, but she would not allow them to go ashore until wed.

It took a good deal of red tape for three very earnest young men to get aboard the Majestic and into communication with three weeping young women, who dried their eyes at sight of their sweethearts. The lovers were Walter W. Smith, formerly of London and South Africa, but now a salesman here for an English machinery firm and most interested in Miss Osborne; Earnest Downer, a clerk for the Interborough, resident of New York for one year, who was waiting for Miss Hand, and Eno Deason, a machinist of Cleveland, O., who had come to meet Miss Webb.

The inspector had something better to propose than taking them all to the clearing house on Ellis Island and that was a triple wedding on board the Majestic.

The salesmen said he had a parson waiting and what was to hinder him from bringing the minister to the steamer? All thought it an excellent idea. The Rev. Jacob Price, of the Washington Heights Methodist Episcopal church, agreed to the plan.

The programme was carried out and the rumbling winches breaking out cargo stopped their groaning while the parson's ship's library tied tight and strong three marriage knots.

Purser Robert Edwards gave away the brides. Brides and bridegrooms were witnesses for one another. The stewards showered them with rice and Purser Edwards gave a wedding breakfast, at which the three couple formed the Majestic hub, pledging to meet once a year.

Decree Refused Mrs. Sothern.

Reno, Nev., Oct. 9.—Judge Pike refused to grant Virginia Harned Sothern a divorce from her actor husband, Edward H. Sothern, saying: "If the interested parties do not deem it of enough importance to grace the court with their presence, I don't see why their family disturbances should be aired here."

Mrs. Sothern is seeking a legal separation from her husband on allegations of desertion and failure to provide. Judge Massey read depositions of Mrs. Sothern and Mrs. Eleanor Rogers of New York City, supporting the contentions. No evidence was offered on the part of Sothern.

Slides Into River.

New Orleans, Oct. 9.—Seventy-five thousand dollars' worth of railroad property slid into the Mississippi river with a terrifying roar Friday, when a section of land 300 feet long and about 200 feet wide caved into the water between Washington avenue and Fourth street. Seven loaded freight cars and four lines of railroad track were engulfed. Undermining of bank by high water was cause.
